Destination Australia

Student sheet · Baccalauréat professionnel / CFA · CEFR B1. Official page: https://itineraires-destinations.fr/destination-australia/

Eight lessons of 55 minutes, timed for 52 minutes. Official programme: Bulletin officiel spécial n° 5 of 11 April 2019.

Key question: How can a young French citizen prepare for life and work in Australia?

Write on this sheet, or in your notebook. Answer keys are always visible on the official pages. Make your own bristol flashcards: there is no ready-made deck. Figures can change: always check the official Australian government pages.

Lesson 1. Your project and Coming South

Key question. How can a young French citizen prepare for life and work in Australia?

Describe the passengers in Coming South (1886). What hopes or worries might they have? Compare with a journey today.

Final task, in one sentence:

Homework: what I already know, and three questions I want this sequence to answer.

Lesson 2. Before departure

Departure checklist: passport · visa · funds · flight · insurance.

Planning subtotal (visa range + flight AUD 1,200): _____

Why is the AUD 5,000 not a visa charge?

Three costs still missing:

Live visa fee, with the official link (do not invent a price):

Lesson 3. Your first week in Sydney

The Big Four:

1. SIM or eSIM · my question to the provider:

2. Bank account · my question to the bank:

3. TFN (official ATO page, no intermediary) · link:

4. Private insurance · I check that cover has started.

If I am unsure about an item at the airport, I: _____

Lesson 4. A café job: pay, tax and RSA

Five questions before I accept an offer:

Casual loading, in my own words:

WHM withholding on the first AUD 45,000 (when it applies): _____

Lesson 5. Regional work and the White Card

Specified work is not any farm job. Usual requirement for a second 417 visa:

One official rule I must check (industry, postcode or counting), with the link:

White Card: required for _____. I do not trade safety for a higher wage.

Lesson 6. Living in Australia

Four weeks at AUD 300 a week: _____ (a calendar month is not always four weeks).

Three house rules:

Two beach-safety rules:

Before an Outback journey I check: fuel, water, communication, weather, road conditions, and I tell someone my route.

Lesson 7. Landing in Sydney and the interview

Documents the officer asks for: _____

If I am unsure about an item: _____

CBD = _____ · arvo = _____

Six interview questions:

My 30-second introduction (experience, visa, availability):

Lesson 8. An Australian resume

I must not include: a passport number, a TFN, a date of birth, or a photograph.

Application message (greeting, role, experience, availability):

Real job advert (source and date; I do not apply as part of this exercise):

Self-check

- I can explain my travel plan.
- I can identify the Big Four.
- I can ask about hourly pay.
- I can distinguish specified work from any farm job.
