Whose Land, Whose Water? · adapted student sheet

SEGPA · CAP · CFA · Bac pro | Usable alone, without an AESH

Official page: https://itineraires-destinations.fr/whose-land-whose-water/dys/

Name: _____ Class or group: _____

My route (circle one): S · SEGPA | C · CAP | P · Bac pro | CFA (then C or P + the CFA task)

How to do an exercise. 1. Read the short text for your route. 2. Read the worked example. 3. Do the task. 4. Read the self-check key. 5. Correct one answer if necessary. 6. Say your sentence aloud.

You do not need a partner, a film, a painting, or an internet search. The full short texts and keys are on the official pages.

Lesson 1. Look Before You Judge

Useful words: kin = like family | resource = used for money or energy | unceded land = never given up by a treaty

The Constitution names: First Nations, Inuit and Métis.

Written record:

Lesson 2. The White Paper and the Red Paper

In 1969 the government was going to abolish Indian status. First Nations answered: Citizens Plus. The White Paper was withdrawn in 1970.

Written record:

Lesson 3. Rivers into Reservoirs

After the dam, the people of Fort George had to move to Chisasibi. The river became twice as fast. Mercury rose in the fish.

Written record:

Lesson 4. Dams Today

Muskrat Falls, Labrador: fear of methylmercury in Lake Melville. Site C, Peace River: Treaty 8 nations objected. The dam came online in August 2025.

Lesson 5. Pipelines on Unceded Land

Consultation means asking. Consent means saying yes. On Wet’suwet’en land, most band councils said yes to Coastal GasLink; most hereditary chiefs said no.

Written record:

Lesson 6. Promises Kept, Promises Broken

Figures to copy with the date and the source. Indigenous Services Canada, 21 October 2026 (check them: they change):

158 advisories lifted since November 2015. 39 still in effect, in 37 communities. The 2015 promise was to end all long-term advisories by March 2021.

Written record (your verdict):

Lesson 7. The Grizzlies

The film is set in Kugluktuk, Nunavut. A lacrosse team becomes a family. They do not give up. You do not need to watch the film: the short text on the page is enough.

Written record:

Lesson 8. A Citizens’ Hearing

Speaking frame: I am talking about […]. The government promised that […]. One fact is […], according to [source]. I ask that […].

My promise, my fact, my request:

Homework: finish a short open letter. Then write one sentence: what I will remember from this unit.
