Anglais · Première technologique · lycée général et technologique

LVA and LVB · B1-B2

Who Speaks for the Desert?

Dys version

Frank Herbert, Dune (1965), the first novel only

Giles Laurent, Dune 45 in Sossusvlei at sunrise, Namibia. Wikimedia Commons, CC BY-SA 4.0. This photograph belongs to the desert world of the novel. It is not a still from any film.

Madame Carole Paoli Pompougnac

conçu par Madame Carole Paoli Pompougnac, mis en page par Grok

© 2026 Madame Carole Paoli Pompougnac · CC BY-NC-SA 4.0

Problématique

When a desert, a resource and a prophecy make a hero, is the hero the voice of a people or the instrument of those who wrote his legend, and who pays the price?

This version can be used on its own, and after an absence. There is one instruction on each line. Examples come before exercises. Important words are in bold, not in italics.

© 2026 Madame Carole Paoli Pompougnac · CC BY-NC-SA 4.0

After an absence: read the written trace of each missed lesson, make the two model flashcards, do the exercise, and check with the key on the correction sheet.

Lesson 1. A Planet Called Dune

Frank Herbert wrote Dune in 1965.

Dune is a desert planet.

Water is very rare.

Step 1. Read the text.

Step 2. Underline the word water.

Step 3. Complete the sentence.

Example: On Arrakis, people must save water.

Exercise: On Arrakis, people must _____ (wear a suit / protect children / recycle water).

Key: any of the three is correct.

Lesson 2. The Spice

The spice is a substance which exists only on Arrakis.

Everybody needs it.

Example: The Fremen are a people who live in the desert.

Exercise: The spice is a resource _____ the empire needs. (who / which)

Key: which.

Lesson 3. Whose Planet?

Strangers put a legend on Arrakis, long ago.

The Fremen believe it.

Example: Although Jessica is a stranger, the Fremen help her.

Exercise: Although the legend is false, _____.

Key: the Fremen believe it / it gives power to Paul.

© 2026 Madame Carole Paoli Pompougnac · CC BY-NC-SA 4.0

Lesson 4. Making a Messiah

The prophecy was written by strangers.

Paul fulfils it.

Example: The legend was planted.

Exercise: People told the story. The story _____ told.

Key: was.

Lesson 5. Mid-sequence assessment

Use the student sheet of Lesson 5.

If you need a shorter writing task, answer in 80 words, with one example and one quotation.

Lesson 6. The Ecologist's Warning

Kynes is a scientist.

He wants to make the desert green.

He says a hero is dangerous.

Example: If the spice disappears, the Guild will stop.

Exercise: If the Fremen follow a hero, they _____ (lose / will lose) their voice.

Key: will lose (or might lose).

Lesson 7. The Hero Trap

Paul is "less than a god, more than a man".

Example: Paul is more powerful than the Emperor.

Exercise: A legend is _____ dangerous _____ an army.

Key: more ... than (or as ... as).

Final task, Lesson 8. Seven boxes

Use the seven boxes. Write one sentence in each box. Tick the box when it is done.

1. Who are you? ☐

© 2026 Madame Carole Paoli Pompougnac · CC BY-NC-SA 4.0

2. What is positive? (use a passive) ☐
3. Problem one. (use a passive) ☐
4. Problem two. (use although) ☐
5. One quotation. ☐
6. A consequence. (use if) ☐
7. Your decision. ☐

Self-assessment. Tick: I said who I am. / I gave one good point. / I gave one problem. / I used one quotation. / I gave my decision.

© 2026 Madame Carole Paoli Pompougnac · CC BY-NC-SA 4.0