Important care note

The film includes suicide, grief, violence, substance misuse and strong language.

You do not need to describe a death.

You do not need to discuss your personal life.

If you feel upset:

1. Pause or stop.

2. Speak to a trusted adult.

3. Ask your teacher for the supported alternative.

How to use the self-checks

1. Read the worked example.

2. Cover the self-check.

3. Try the task.

4. Uncover the answer.

5. Correct in a different colour.

For an opinion, the self-check shows what a successful answer needs. It does not tell you what you must think.

2. Meet the film

The Grizzlies is a Canadian film.

Miranda de Pencier directed it.

It was released in 2018.

The story takes place in Kugluktuk, Nunavut.

It concerns young people and a lacrosse team.

It is based on real events. It does not represent every Inuit experience.

The family's distrust must not be simplified into opposition to all education.

Choose two possible connections.

In this scene, land and water are connected with:

Then complete:

Do not choose the claim about everyone having the same opinion.

© 2026 Madame Carole Paoli Pompougnac · CC BY-NC-SA 4.0

hope	feeling that something good is possible

Exercise 9. Match three words

Worked example:

> support → help

Now match.

1. agency

2. belonging

3. raise funds

a. collect money

b. ability to influence events

c. feeling connected

Self-check:

1b; 2c; 3a.

Exercise 10. Complete two sentences

Self-check:

2. agency

11. Use careful language

You are a student discussing a film.

You are not speaking in place of Inuit people.

Useful sentences:

• I think …

• In this scene, …

• Miranda’s actions suggest …

• The film presents …

• This may show …

• This does not tell us what everyone thinks.

Exercise 11. Choose the careful sentence

Worked example:

> A. All Inuit young people think alike.
> B. The film presents several young characters.
> Better answer: B. It does not generalise.

Now choose.

1. A. Adam’s grandparents are shown as distrusting school. B. All Inuit families reject education.

2. A. Sport fixes everything. B. Sport can create support.

3. A. I speak for this community. B. I am giving my interpretation of the film.

Self-check:

1. A.

2. B.

3. B.

12. Make useful sentences

Exercise 12. Use an activity as the subject

Worked example:

> Play together can help.
> Correct: Playing together can help.

Choose.

1. Playing / Play together can build support.

2. Listening / Listen to others can change an opinion.

3. Raising / Raise funds takes organisation.

Self-check:

1. Playing.

2. Listening.

3. Raising.

Exercise 13. Show a contrast

“Although” helps you recognise two different facts.

Worked example:

> The team loses. The match matters.
> Although the team loses, the match matters.

Complete.

1. Although Russ starts the project, Miranda _____.

Choose:

• helps shape it;

• has no role.

2. Although sport creates opportunities, it _____.

© 2026 Madame Carole Paoli Pompougnac · CC BY-NC-SA 4.0

Choose:

• removes every difficulty;

• does not remove every difficulty.

Self-check:

1. helps shape it.

2. does not remove every difficulty.

13. Give your response

Exercise 14. Choose a meaningful moment

Worked example:

> Moment: Miranda helps organise fundraising.
> My response: I value this moment because it shows her influence.

Choose one moment:

• Miranda organises.

• Adam learns with his grandparents.

• The grandmother supports the team.

• Kyle encourages the players.

Complete:

> I chose the moment when _____.
> It matters because _____.

Self-check:

• I named a moment.

• I explained why it matters.

• I did not claim everyone thinks the same thing.

© 2026 Madame Carole Paoli Pompougnac · CC BY-NC-SA 4.0

Possible answer:

> I chose the moment when Kyle encourages the players. It matters because he helps define what they want to achieve.

14. Prepare for the debate

Our question:

> Can help be useful without taking control?

You may also discuss:

• Who helps the team succeed?

• Who should define success?

• Why should promises be realistic?

• What knowledge is connected with land and water?

• Who is heard when decisions are made?

Exercise 15. Build your debate card

Worked example:

> My view: Young people help shape the project.
> Evidence: Miranda helps raise funds.
> Limit: Russ also contributes.

Now complete.

My view:

> I think _____.

My film evidence:

> In the film, _____.

Another contribution or viewpoint:

> However, _____.

© 2026 Madame Carole Paoli Pompougnac · CC BY-NC-SA 4.0

My limit:

> This does not mean _____.

My question:

> Who / Why / How _____?

Self-check:

• My evidence is an action I watched.

• I named the character.

• I included a different contribution or viewpoint.

• I did not speak for Inuit people.

Possible answer:

> I think the project depends on several people. In the film, Miranda helps raise funds. However, Russ introduces lacrosse. This does not mean that one person saves everyone. How does the grandmother also influence the project?

Exercise 16. Connect with the sequence

Worked example:

> Film idea: People should be heard in decisions affecting them.
> Sequence link: We can ask who is heard in a land or water decision.

Choose the careful link.

A. This film proves the legal facts of every land dispute.

B. This film helps us ask whose knowledge and decisions matter.

Then complete:

> To make a factual claim about a land or water dispute, I need _____.

Self-check:

© 2026 Madame Carole Paoli Pompougnac · CC BY-NC-SA 4.0

• Choose B.

• Possible completion: “a relevant source about that dispute”.

The connection is a question about decision-making. It is not proof of a separate legal claim.

15. Your spoken contribution

Exercise 17. Prepare and speak

Worked example:

> I think Miranda shows agency. She helps raise funds. Although Russ starts the team, he does not act alone. I am discussing the film, not speaking for a community.

Choose your route.

CAP A2, or additional support:

Say three sentences.

> I think _____.
> In the film, _____.
> This does not mean _____.

Bac pro or CFA:

Say four or five sentences.

Include:

• your view;

• one scene;

• another contribution;

• one limit.

Première LVB B1:

© 2026 Madame Carole Paoli Pompougnac · CC BY-NC-SA 4.0

Speak for about 45 seconds.

Include a different interpretation.

Première LVA B1+:

Speak for about one minute.

Explain how the film supports your view and where that evidence stops.

SEGPA access route, where relevant:

Use the CAP sentences.

Read one sentence at a time.

You may rehearse each sentence separately before joining them.

Self-check:

• I gave my own view.

• I named a film moment.

• I used “can”, “may” or “although”.

• I avoided “all Inuit people”.

• I spoke aloud, even if I was working alone.

16. Make two flashcards

Exercise 18. Make and review

Worked example:

> Front: agency
> Back: ability to influence events.
> Example: Miranda shows agency through organising.

Now make two cards.

Card 1:

Front: _____

© 2026 Madame Carole Paoli Pompougnac · CC BY-NC-SA 4.0

Meaning: _____

Example: _____

Card 2:

Front: _____

Meaning: _____

Example: _____

Self-check:

• Each card has a word or useful structure.

• Each card has a meaning.

• Each card has an example.

• I tested myself with the back covered.

Review the cards the next day and before the debate.

17. Keep your written record

The team's story involves several people. Young people make decisions and support one another. Sport can create hope, but it does not remove every difficulty. I discuss named characters and do not speak for Inuit people.

18. Final independent check

Exercise 19. Check, correct and improve

Worked example:

First version: Sport solves everything.
Problem: The claim is too broad.
Improved version: Sport can create support, but it does not solve every problem.

Now check your own contribution.
